INTRODUCTION

Thank you for finding me here love ~ I'm Isabella. I spend my time dancing through house disco sets, frolicking in the ocean, and cooking nourishing meals for kindreds and postpartum mamas.

I lovingly capture and document life's sacred moments. Story is powerful, and I'm here to witness and capture yours.

I'm not here to curate aesthetic photos at the expense of your energy - instead I facilitate a container for your essence to feel comfortable and relaxed, so the candid moments of your being are captured.

If you and your beloved love getting a greasy burger together, let's do it. If you and your little ones love getting muddy in the yard, perfect. If you live for the soft small moments in the everyday, let's capture it. I'm here to capture your story and the in between moments of life.

Through this guide, you'll find information about my packages, the terms and conditions, and frequently asked questions ~ please using the booking link on my website were you found me to book, ask any queries, or have a chat.

Blessings and love,

Isabella x

MOTHERHOOD

This soft slow session is an ode to Mothers ~ a celebration and recognition of the women that traverse this rite of passage. Mothers that are prenatal and postpartum, no matter how young or old your babes are, are invited to be celebrated in this session.

As a birthkeeper, I'm informed on the considerations and needs of Mothers that are freshly postpartum, or on the cusp of welcoming their babe ~ this session will be curated to ensure yours and your babe's needs are considered throughout.

FAMILY

During our family session, I tune into the flow of your family, the individual personalities of your little ones, and create an environment where it feels effortless and freeing for them to have their photo captured.

A space is created where your family spends time together as you usually would, allowing the candid moments to organically arise.

LOVERS

I love documenting the chemistry and unfurling of love between two souls ~ this life is so succulent, and sharing it with another being is an even greater adventure.

In this session, it'll be an experience of pure presence and joy with your loved one ~ this is an inclusive space and I welcome all couples to have their nest of intimacy captured.

BIRTH

The rite of passage that is birth is pure magic ~ it is the space between two worlds, a journey that encompasses the polarities of life.

Being present at a birth is a humbling experience where I am aware of my presence and how I show up in your space.

Before your babe arrives, we will spend time getting to know one another so when I'm present at your birth, you and your family will feel that my presence is supportive.

I will be on call 24/7 for 4 weeks around the time of your birth ~ two weeks before and after your "due date". I'll always be no more than an hour from your home, and ready to make my way to you when your babe is ready to be welcomed into the world.

SOLO/EMPOWERMENT

This session is solely for you ~ an ode to your journey in this lifetime.

This is a co-creation where your essence and the lens you see life through is witnessed by myself in a safe container. You and your spirit are celebrated and captured for the being you are. This is an unfurling, a blossoming, a gift to yourself and the unique human you are.

BRAND

As a woman that has lovingly invested money, intention, and time outside of my 9 to 5, to craft my offerings into a full time role, I understand the importance of branding sessions that are accessible for all women in business. These sessions are curated to bring the story and essence of you and your offerings to life.

This is a co-creation, as the foundation of your brand is you. We will collaborate in a way that feels easeful and brings the core of your brand to life through imagery.

EVENT/RETREAT

When a container is created for people to unfurl, rest, and dive deep into their innate selves, it is a beautiful gift to capture and document this metamorphosis.

When present in these spaces, I'm conscious of the processes that surface for individuals and will remain observant and aware when capturing photos to ensure these processes are not disturbed.

I'm available for events/retreats which reflect this state of being ~ my investment for this varies, and is curated specifically for your needs.

Please contact me for a bespoke package for your offering ~ travel may need to be covered at cost.

ELOPEMENT/WEDDING

This is where the gold is for me ~ capturing the sacred ceremony of two beings riding and celebrating this wild lifetime together.

I'm currently on the search to build my portfolio in elopements/weddings ~ due to this, I'm offering a discounted rate for the first two clients to book me for an elopement/small wedding.

If this is you ~ please contact me via my booking form to co-create an intimate and bespoke package for you and your beloved ~ x

FAQ

Do you send RAW images?

Part of the experience of receiving my creative process is the editing stage too. For this reason, I do not send RAW images.

What should I wear?

I love to capture people in their essence of who they are - your clothing is a gateway to this.

Wear what feels like an expression of you and is comfortable. If it's a group/couple session, collaborating the colour palette together always adds a beautiful touch to the images.

Depending on the shoot location, you may find yourself frolicking at the waters edge or in long grass, so please wear something that you are happy to do so in.

You're welcome to bring a variety of outfits if you like. If you're completely stuck and have no idea what to wear, feel free to reach out and I can assist you.

Please do not wear neon clothing or anything that has logos/brand names obviously displayed. I also recommend removing any smartwatches.

What happens in a shoot?

I like my shoots to be relaxed and an experience where you and/or your babes walk away feeling like your cups are full. Before pulling out the camera, I'll get to know you and/or your little ones, connect, and invoke some play to make the experience come together.

I'll offer some prompts here and there, but I'll always prioritise an essence of play and exploration rather than stagnant posing.

Where do you travel to?

I'm currently based on Kaurna Yerta/Adelaide, South Australia. I am however traveling regularly and can travel to wherever you are upon discussion..

If you happen to be located somewhere that is on my bucket list, travel costs may be subsidised ~ please reach out to discuss.

Where is the shoot location?

I love capturing people in locations where you spend a lot of your time or holds sentimental meaning ~ whether it's your home, the forest, beach or your favourite burger joint, I'm there. If you have no preference and are open to suggestions, I'll suggest a few options to choose from.

FAQ

When will I receive my photos?

Processing time for photos will take from 2-6 weeks, depending on the season and availability. I will happily send you some preview photos in the first week, just to hold down the anticipation and excitement of seeing your beautiful gallery.

Can I order prints through you?

At this stage I'm not offering print services, but I can recommend places to order your prints from.

What happens if the weather is not great?

I love shooting in all kinds of weather - clouds can make some gorgeous moody images, so we will shoot no matter the weather unless it is storming/pouring extremely heavy. In the circumstance of a downpour, we will reschedule to another date free of charge.

Do you require a deposit to book?

A non-refundable deposit of 40% of the fee is required, with the remaining cost due 7 days prior to the session.

The deposit secures your chosen date and covers my expenses in the event of cancellation.

Can I change the booking date?

You are welcome to change the booking date for free up until two weeks before the original date. After this period, any changes will incur a $50 fee.

This service is available up to 48 hours before the session. This does not apply in the circumstance of bad weather.

What is your cancellation policy?

You may cancel your session for free up to 7 days before the session (minus the non-refundable deposit). Should you cancel past the 7 days, the full amount will be deducted.

Do you take nude photos?

Yes! I love capturing the beautiful nature of our bare edges and skin. Please let me know if you have questions surrounding this.
